If you're on a California beach and see a gorgeous blonde romping with a one-hundred-twenty-pound dog, it might be cover model Suzi Simpson (above and overleaf). An outdoor person, Suzi spends a lot of time at the shore where she surfs and plays volleyball. Modeling lingerie makes Suzi especially happy because it lets her show the glamorous side of her personality.

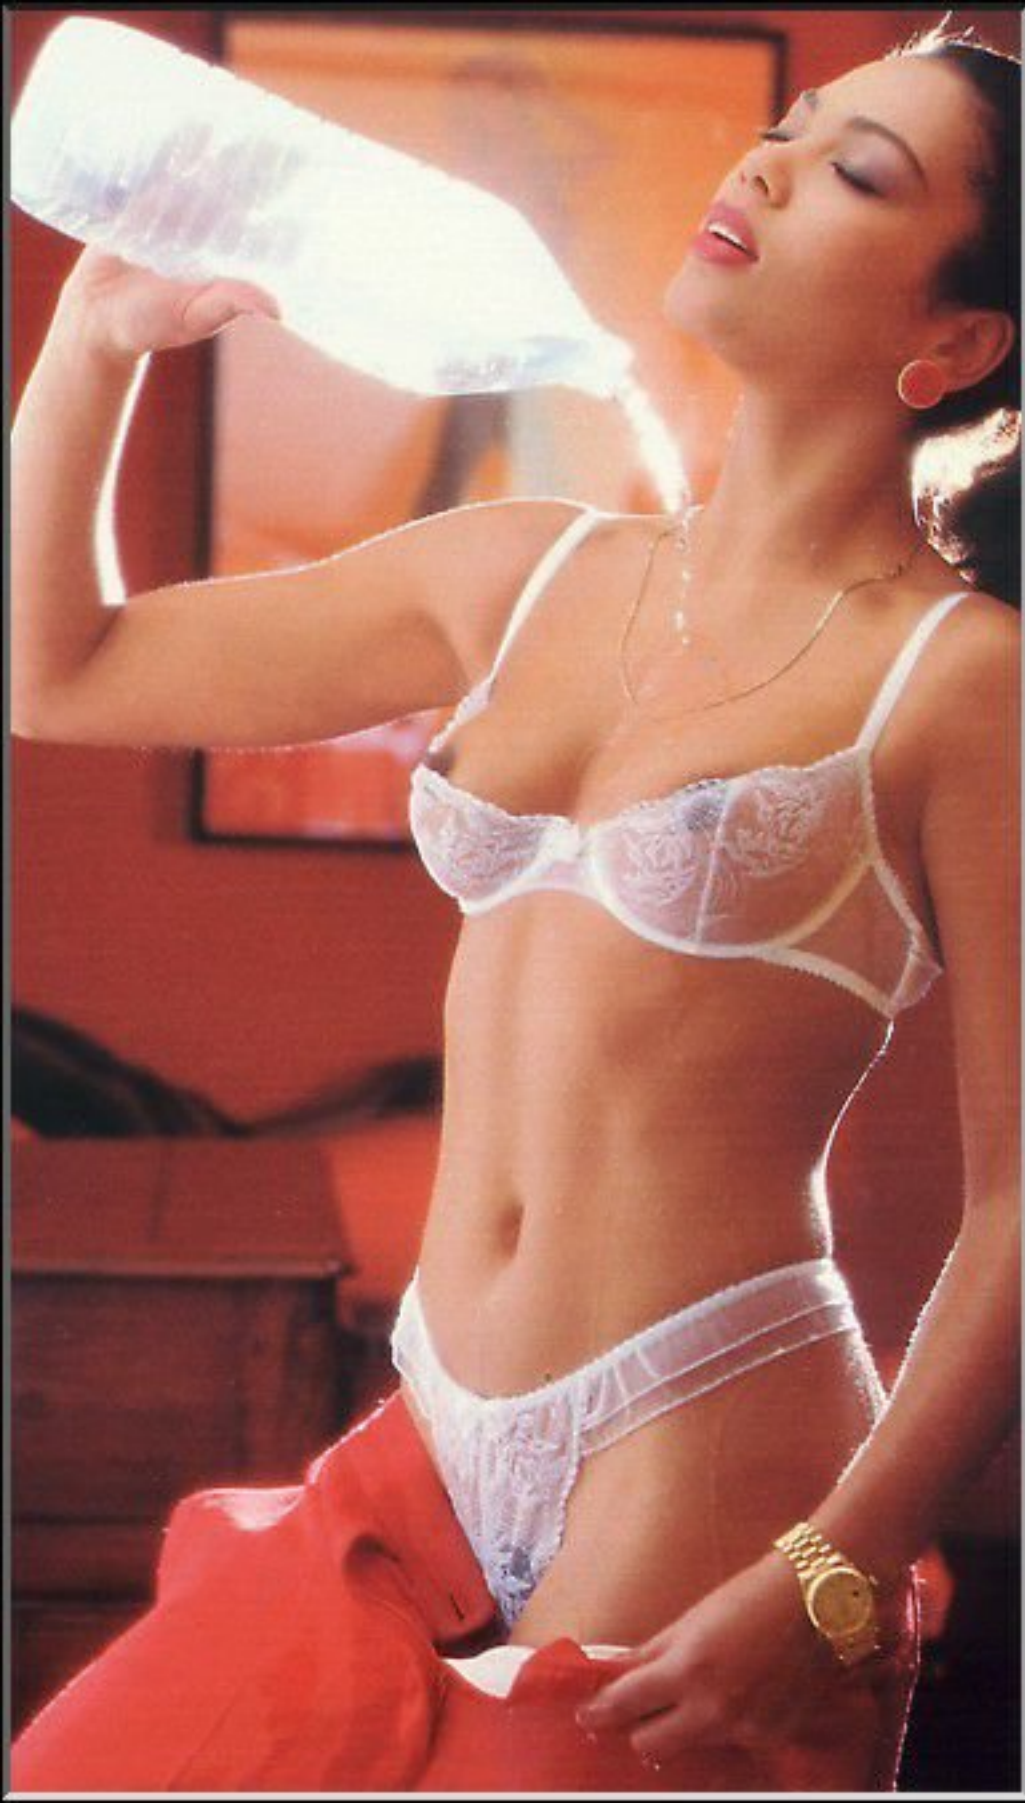

It's time for that twenty-four-hour celebration known as Independence Day when we awaken to the sound of firecrackers and go to sleep after the last pyrotechnic display. Barbara Moore intends to light some sparklers later, but first she nibbles on a juicy watermelon. A bikini is the perfect outfit for this occasion.

DISPLAY UNTIL AUGUST 15, 1994
